Built for Professionals Who Travel to Work

A New Standard in Business Accommodation

Alt Acco is a business-focused alternate accommodation brand offering professionally managed serviced apartments designed specifically for today's mobile workforce. We understand that business travel is fundamentally different from leisure tourism.

Our properties serve consultants, executives, founders, and project teams who require space, privacy, and flexibility for longer stays. Whether you're leading a critical client engagement, establishing a new regional office, or managing an extended project assignment, Alt Acco provides the environment you need to maintain peak performance.

We combine the comfort and functionality of a fully equipped apartment with the professional discipline of hospitality services and the practical amenities that businesses actually require. No tourist gimmicks, no unnecessary frills—just thoughtfully designed spaces that support focused work and quality rest.

Why Alt Acco

Spacious Serviced Apartments

Proper living spaces, not cramped hotel rooms. Room to breathe, work, and unwind after demanding days.

Work-Ready Layouts

Dedicated work desks and ergonomic spaces designed for productivity during extended business assignments.

Naturally Ventilated Spaces

Calm, comfortable living environments with natural airflow—healthier and more sustainable than constant air conditioning.

Quiet Residential Locations

Situated away from touristy hotel zones in peaceful residential areas that support focus and rest.

Flexible Stay Options

Short stays, monthly rentals, or project-based arrangements—accommodation that adapts to your business needs.

Superior Value

Significantly better cost-efficiency for extended stays compared to hotels, with transparent corporate pricing.

Alt Acco is ideal for professionals staying weeks or months, where genuine comfort and sustained productivity matter far more than hotel amenities you'll never use.

Who We Serve

Alt Acco serves the mobile business community—professionals whose travel is driven by work objectives, not leisure pursuits. Our properties are designed with your specific requirements in mind.

Corporate Executives

Professionals requiring quality accommodation during regional visits, strategic planning sessions, or market expansion initiatives.

Consultants & Project Teams

Professionals delivering client engagements over weeks or months who need comfortable, focused living spaces near project sites.

Startup Founders & Leadership

Entrepreneurial teams establishing operations in new cities, conducting intensive hiring, or managing critical business development.

Extended Business Assignments

Professionals on temporary postings, training programmes, or project deployments requiring home-like comfort away from home.

We also partner with forward-thinking companies housing outstation employees, project teams, and relocated staff. If your travel is work-driven and performance matters, Alt Acco is purposefully designed for you.
